HILTOPPREATS VIRGINIA POLYS

Gilroy and McQuade Feature Georgetown's Victory Over Blacksburg Eleven.

Johnny Gilroy and "Botch" McQuade as gridiron warriors will long be remembered by the Virginia Polytechnic Institute from the time they later met on the field of the Hilltoppers. At this point, the two football athletes proved demons in Georgetown University's victory over the Dixie clan at the Hilltop field yesterday by 28 to 0.

Coach Bennett's visitors were unable to halt the charges of the Blue and Gray eleven and it was that Gilroy and then McQuade that plunged off tackle and through the Poly's line for gains that resulted in the four touchdowns scored by the Hilltoppers.

Gilroy raced forty yards for Georgetown's first touchdown in the opening period and a few minutes later McQuade hit off the left flank of the Poly's line for Georgetown's second touchdown.

Two tallies were rung up by the Hilltoppers in this first twelve minutes of play. Georgetown presented an attack that completely baffled the visitors. The Blacksburg's eleven braced during the second period and on four occasions held the Blue and Gray to the sidelines. During the early minutes of the third period the Polys presented their best defense of the day by holding Georgetown for downs on the one-yard line.

The powerful battering attack of the Hilltop team told on the Polytechnic eleven in the final period and two more touchdowns were registered by the Hilltoppers. The first came by the route of a brilliantly executed forward pass from Gilroy to McQuade who raced forty yards for a touchdown. On the next kick-off Gilroy brought the ball back to the forty-five yard line, and "Botch" McQuade hit off the visitors' left flank for a fifty-five yard run and Georgetown's final count.

The Virginia's attack could not get started against the Hilltoppers. The two sides exchanged allottment during the fray, one coming by the way of a forward pass.

The defensive work of Right and Younger, who played a dapper full-back, was the best that has been witnessed on the Hilltop field in a long time. Younger was in every play at one time and again made his tackle before the play had reached the second defense.

Five hundred students from the officers' reserve camp at Fort Meyer, were on hand and pulled hard for the Virginia. Most of the boys who had attended the Blacksburg institute.

After a series of line attacks by McQuade, Mattie Dugan for short gain Gilroy got away in the first period for his long run and the entire period was entirely in favor of the powerful Georgetown machine. The Virginia's defense was unable to rout in this period as McQuade followed up this touchdown with some brilliant runs off tackle which resulted in a touchdown for him shortly before the end of the first period. The second period was the best of the day as the Virginia's halted the Georgetown rushes and forced the Hilltoppers to punt. In this department the game Malcom, who played the Blue and Gray, beat Bennett of the visitors.

Georgetown started off the third period with a rush as they held the Polys for downs and started the game to the north goal line that appeared like a real score. A forward heave from Gilroy to Whelan placed the ball within the five-yard line and the Virginia held on the yard line and Bennett punted from behind his own goal to midfield.

The forward heave held the Hilltoppers to their third down in the early minutes of the fourth period. Gilroy cut loose the pigskin to McQuade who raced 45 yards for a touchdown. The final touchdown came as a result of Gilroy's 45-yard run from kick-off and McQuade's brilliant plunge off the right flank of the visitors' "botch" covering 55 yards of end zone to reach the goal line.

Dudeck kicked the goal from the touchdown during the fray. Parrish played left tackle for Virginia, appearing to be the best one in their line.
